FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS

WHAT DO THEY DO?

They act as ballast for all the commercial activities of the country. They make it possible for wealth with small capital to be accumulated. They also make panic impossible for those who, for selfish reasons, would bring them on if possible.

They perform many other useful activities but these two alone would be amply sufficient.

EULEIAN CLASS OF BAPTIST S. S.
The Euleian class of the Baptist Sunday school held its regular business and social meeting Tuesday evening with Misses Trade and Coy as hosts. Valentine decorations were used in attractive way. Hearts and cups were on the table and a basket of red carnations adorned the library table.

Devotional was led by the teacher, Mrs. R. C. Hutchison. During the hour for business plans for making money for the class treasury were discussed. A committee was appointed to arrange for putting on display articles for sale that may be made and donated from time to time by members of the class.

A salad plate with hot chocolate was served to ten members and one visitor, Miss Lois Brunson.

Mrs. W. D. Pierson and Mrs. Sam Reese visited Mrs. Pierson's mother, Mrs. Carroll, in Troy, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Farris announced the birth of a son on Wednesday, February 13.

Mrs. Fred May, of Gulfport, Miss., arrived in Elba Friday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harper. Mrs. May will be remembered as the May Alice Harper, who has many friends here who welcome her to the city.

According to an announcement by Dr. John H. Clark, the Junior College, Marion, Miss. Sara Carley, of Elba, was among those whose names were on the honor roll for the first semester.

Edna Lindley, of Montgomery, was a business visitor in Elba Monday.

NOTICE
I have my business and other machinery in operation. Please bring items and let the shop know what you have. I will be glad to take them and will be credited later.

B. S. Brunson.

Mrs. Annie Waters left Sunday for Birmingham, where she was called on account of the serious condition of her mother, Mrs. E. L. Blue. Dr. Blue was thought to have been recovering from the blood poison which had confined him to a hospital for several weeks, but his condition again became grave after he was taken home, and Thursday he was carried back to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bonheur and children, Mrs. Jim Whitman and children, visited Montgomery shopping Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dorsey and Mrs. R. G. Hutchison left Wednesday for Cuba. Mr. Dorsey is looking after business interests in Cuba. Mr. Hutchison and Mrs. Dorsey are enjoying the various pleasures afforded by Florida and Cuba at this season.

CREAM STATION INSTALLED
English Bros. Co. have announced that they have installed a cream station at their store, and are paying 4c per pound for butter fat. Additional details will follow next week.

Ted Ham and Bryan Morrow, who have been working in Akron, Ohio, for the past several months, arrived in Elba last Thursday night.

Friends of Mrs. Fells Morrow will regret to learn that she is ill at her home in Troy, Ala.

MRS. CROOK GAVE PRETTY PARTY
Mrs. R. C. Crook entertained a number of little folks at a pretty party Friday afternoon. The occasion being the third birthday of her little son, John Reeves.

The living room was attractively decorated with hearts, cups and other suggestions of Valentine. In the dining room feasts of red, white and blue paper were used.

Games and contests were enjoyed by the little guests. A feature contest was the heart hunt. Jack Prescott won the prize for finding most hearts. After the games the covered little host led his guests into the dining room where the cream and cake were served. Mrs. Crook was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Jim Whitman and Mrs. J. L. Woodman.

VALENTINE PARTY GIVEN BY CIVIC CLUB
There is a sentiment about Valentine day that appeals to the older as well as younger people. The Valentine party given by the Civic Club at the home of Mrs. H. J. Dyer on Valentine Day was an evidence of this fact.

For this occasion, Mrs. Jeter's home was made more beautiful by the lovely decorations in keeping with the day.

Miss Jean Langston had charge of the program which consisted of readings by Misses Marylene Han and Adelaide Dixon, and two unique contests. Mrs. P. Boyd and Mrs. W. C. Vaughn and Miss Bonnie Weis spent Monday in Opp.

Citizens Military Training Camps Enrollments March 1

Major General Richmond E. Davis, commanding the Fourth Corps Area, announces that applications to the total of 5,200 for attending next summer CMT camps, will be accepted beginning Friday, March 1. He states that these camps for thirty days beginning June 15th, are to be held at the following places and are to train the numbers indicated:

1. Fort Barrancas, Florida, near Panama, 500 infantry.
2. Fort Screven, Ga., near Savannah, 300 infantry.
3. Camp McClellan, Ala., near Anniston, 300 infantry.
4. Fort Bragg, N. C., near Fayetteville, 500 field artillery.
5. Fort Monmouth, N. J., near Fort Monmouth, 700 infantry.

Thousands Too Late Last Year
Less than half of the young men applying for these camps in the south last year could be accommodated. Funds and facilities were available for only four thousand.

Louisiana, the first state in the Union to exceed its quota, went over the top 28 days after enrollment began. All eight southern states comprising the Fourth Corps Area filled their quotas by May 31st. The Fourth Corps Area, including all others in the country, for the thousands disappointed last year, only early enrollment this year will provide them a place in the camps.

Who May Attend
Any young man of acceptable character and between the ages of 17 and 21 may apply for the Basic Course. If he can pass the required physical examination and is of good moral character, as testified by a reputable citizen who knows him, he may attend these camps.

No Future Military Obligations
Attendance at these camps means no obligation for future military service. Those who attend are no more likely to be called to the colors in time of war than any other man. However, if they volunteer or are selected for service they are more likely to secure rapid advancement and be able to defend their country more effectively and with greater safety to themselves. Military training is not the primary object. The training at these camps traces citizenship, good character, initiative, good fellowship and how to work and play hard and effectively. The mental and physical influences are kept at high standards.

At Government Expense
All necessary expense covering transportation, camp facilities, food, clothing, laundry, medical examinations and attendance and services of instructors is furnished by the government. It could not be duplicated by private enterprise for less than several hundred dollars for each member and it is an honor, as a purely unrequited by any government at any time.

ALABAMA: Young men from the southern portion go to Fort Barrancas, Florida, and from the northern portion to Camp McClellan, Ala., except for the three northern counties from which they go to Camp Oglethorpe.

FLORIDA: Young men from west of Jefferson county go to Fort Barrancas, while those from the rest of Florida go to Fort Screven, Ga.

GEORGIA: Young men from Camp Georgia go to Fort Monmouth, N. J. Those from the west go to Camp McClellan, Ala., except for the northwestern counties which help to fill the Fort Barrancas quota and 12 northern counties from which the boys go to Fort Oglethorpe.

Where To Apply
Any regular army officer, State Civilian Aide or County Representative can furnish blanks and information or write directly to the C.M.T.C. O. P. O., Headquarters Fourth Corps Area, Oakland City Station, Atlanta, Ga.

HEAVY RAINS DO GREAT DAMAGE TO ROADS AND BRIDGES

Traffic At A Standstill After Downpour Tuesday: Rivers Rising But Not Expected To Overflow

Traffic was paralyzed in this section from torrential rains which lasted from Tuesday morning until early Wednesday, and reports were trickling in all day Wednesday of washed-out fills and bridges. High school children in the northern end of the county were given a holiday Wednesday owing to the fact that the school bus could not pass over the bridge at Russell's bridge, between Victoria and Jack. The fill approach to Taylor's Mill bridge was reported washed. Highway leading in all directions were virtually impassable, and country roads were variable state of mud.

The carriers could only make part of their route Tuesday, and while they were sorting their mail as usual, they were unable to deliver much of it. The mail was delayed a day or two, and the carriers were unable to deliver much of it.

Both White Water and Beaver Dam Creeks at Elba were reported to be rising rapidly Tuesday, and while they were sorting their mail as usual, they were unable to deliver much of it. The mail was delayed a day or two, and the carriers were unable to deliver much of it.

TURNING TO LIVESTOCK FARMING

Judging from our recent poultry and livestock sales held in this county, activities of that nature will be the salvation of this section. While many have not yet been convinced of the practicability of livestock raising, it will not take many more years to prove it, when those who have participated in these sales can show that goodly bank balances, against none at all, for the all-otment farmers. The sales held in this county within the past year have netted a sum far beyond the fondest imaginations of the skeptical, and the best proof is that each year shows an increase over the other.

Recent rains have played havoc with roads in Coffee County again, and up until Sunday even the main highways were practically impassable. Tourists were routed through Elba and Enterprise last week on account of the condition of the road between Banks and Troy.

BUS LINE BOOST

We beseech our readers to read carefully the schedule of the Lindsey Bus line this week. We don't want anyone to walk on foot and a half in the cold as we did Sunday morning, only to be informed that the bus had departed long since. A few weeks ago Mr. Lindsey informed us that their bus line would be extended to Dothan, and to prove his statement, gave us an ad. to run four weeks. All of which was very nice. The sad part follows.

Saturday night we were informed that we would go to Troy Sunday morning, so cheerfully we informed the better half that (Ha Ha) we would not have to arise at the unwholesome hour of five o'clock, because here we are, in the Clipper to prove it. Came to bed, as it usually does, and we slumbered on. Seven o'clock arrived and we hurriedly ate our breakfast, prising all the while the change in the bus schedule. Drove to Mr. Garrett's hotel we went, and confidently we took a seat in the lobby. At 8:15 Mr. Garrett informed us that the bus schedule had been changed again. What happened after that is nobody's business. Anyway, don't forget to read the ad this week.

TOBACCO TAX INCREASES

Collections from the fifteen percent sales tax levied on cigars and cigarettes by the last legislature are increasing, while the cost of collection is declining, because from the State Tax Commission show. During the last three months of 1928, the tobacco tax brought into the treasury the sum of $228,636.78, the largest amount ever collected during any quarter since the tax went into effect. This increase was effected at a much lower expense of collection than the tax incurred in earlier collections. The Alabama system of collecting the tax on "smokes" with the co-operation of wholesalers and without the objectionable stamp feature, has been urged by the Legislature of Tennessee to adopt the Alabama method. The net revenue derived from the tax in this state goes to the public schools.

Coffee County Births

Following is a report of births in Coffee County as compiled by the County Health Unit, for the month of January, 1929. If you know of others that are not in this list, please notify the County Health Office by letter or telephone, as it is very important that every child's birth be registered.

The sad part follows.

Saturday night we were informed that we would go to Troy Sunday morning, so cheerfully we informed the better half that (Ha Ha) we would not have to arise at the unwholesome hour of five o'clock, because here we are, in the Clipper to prove it. Came to bed, as it usually does, and we slumbered on. Seven o'clock arrived and we hurriedly ate our breakfast, prising all the while the change in the bus schedule. Drove to Mr. Garrett's hotel we went, and confidently we took a seat in the lobby. At 8:15 Mr. Garrett informed us that the bus schedule had been changed again. What happened after that is nobody's business. Anyway, don't forget to read the ad this week.

TOBACCO TAX INCREASES

Collections from the fifteen percent sales tax levied on cigars and cigarettes by the last legislature are increasing, while the cost of collection is declining, because from the State Tax Commission show. During the last three months of 1928, the tobacco tax brought into the treasury the sum of $228,636.78, the largest amount ever collected during any quarter since the tax went into effect. This increase was effected at a much lower expense of collection than the tax incurred in earlier collections. The Alabama system of collecting the tax on "smokes" with the co-operation of wholesalers and without the objectionable stamp feature, has been urged by the Legislature of Tennessee to adopt the Alabama method. The net revenue derived from the tax in this state goes to the public schools.

Coffee County Births

Following is a report of births in Coffee County as compiled by the County Health Unit, for the month of January, 1929. If you know of others that are not in this list, please notify the County Health Office by letter or telephone, as it is very important that every child's birth be registered.

All From Linters

Twenty years ago they thought they were lucky to have found how to use cotton linters for filling mattresses and making batting. Then the chemists got on the job, and now we get cellulose from linters, and with cellulose they make high explosives, surgical dressings, new skin, artificial leather, sausage casing, apparel, lacquers, varnishes, photographic films, toilet articles and lullaby balls. What will be next—just from cotton linters? Nobody knows! Maybe, maybe.

"I used 75 tons of V-C on 230 acres and marketed 240 bales averaging 500 pounds of cotton. I intend to use MORE next spring." —John Glaz, Clayton, Ga.

"The average man learns from his own experience. The wise man learns from the experience of others." —Quoted.

"We remove from the soil each year nearly five hundred million dollars' worth of plant food more than we restore, and erosion and other factors rob it annually of a sum vastly in excess of this." —The Fertilizer Review.

V-C of Course!

M. F. Baker, of Smith County, Texas, grew 6,234 pounds of lint and 12,018 pounds of seed on 5 acres—and won the state prize given by the Dallas News. The value of the crop was $1,094 and the cost of the fertilizer was $104. Counting labor and everything, his whole cost per pound of lint was only 5.4 cents. "What fertilizer did he use?" Don't make us hesitate!

"To keep prosperous and happy people coming their living from the soil, farming interests must be considered educationally, economically, and socially," says the Yearbook of Agriculture. "Modern farmers there and are entitled to spend a part of their time in the realm of thought outside their vocation."

Back Up the Scientists

Everybody can eat just as much and put on as many of these and can't eat or wear any more, no matter how rich he is. But on other things his pocketbook is the only limit. The job is to learn how far practical use can be used in making these.

"Farmers are more independent than any other group, yet this has tended to make them slower to organize within their own group, slower to cooperate with other groups, slower—but not entirely without the impulse which is growing of late among men." —U. S. Department of the Interior.

"Effective fertilization is not merely an agricultural requirement but a national necessity." —American Trust Co.

Feed Those Flowers! While you're making the farm pretty with money crops, give the wife a chance to beautify the house yard too. Treat her garden to some V-C BLOOM AID—which bears about the same relation to ordinary commercial fertilizer that cake does to cornmeal.

On one special three-acre plot I used 450 pounds of V-C per acre, and have picked five bales to date and expect to get another 10. W. C. McGinnis, Cave Spring, Ga.

Who's been using V-C the longest? The company would appreciate letters.

"Last year I used 300 pounds of V-C Special Formula 3-8-5 per acre, with a yield of approximately one bale to the acre. This was not on a test plot but on the average yield on one of my farms of about 300 acres." —Hoseli Porter, Vinhurst, Ga.

The Fourth Ingredient

Along with their ammonium and potash and superphosphate, V-C Fertilizer is always contain a fourth ingredient. This is not a substance at all, yet it makes the whole mixture good as to source and local use, contents and condition. V-C Fertilizer would not be the same without it. This fourth ingredient, found in no other fertilizer but V-C, is a priceless one. It is—V-C's god name.

Cotton is the third largest agricultural crop in the United States, and the cotton industry seventh in value of manufactured products.

Effects of Independence

"Farmers are more independent than any other group, yet this has tended to make them slower to organize within their own group, slower to cooperate with other groups, slower—but not entirely without the impulse which is growing of late among men." —U. S. Department of the Interior.

"Effective fertilization is not merely an agricultural requirement but a national necessity." —American Trust Co.

CARD OF THANKS I wish to thank the friends and relatives for their kindness and help during the illness and death of my beloved aunt. I especially thank Dr. Brannon for his untiring efforts; also Dr. Ballard and Helley for their assistance. May God's richest blessings rest on you all.

Anna Clark.

In Memory of "Aunt Martha" Jones

On Wednesday Night, Dec. 19th, 1928, about 7 o'clock, God called our beloved aunt to her heavenly home. She was born Sept. 5, 1857, in Coffee County, Ala., where she has always lived. She was the oldest daughter of Mr. James G. Jones, better known as "Uncle Jim".

She was never married and had lived in the old home of her parents until her death. After the death of her parents and all of her sisters were married, she was left alone with one of her nieces, Anna Clark, who had been reared in the home since she was three weeks old. To her she was a real mother and loved her with a mother's love.

She became a member of New Providence church, Sept. 25, 1910, and was baptized by Elder J. B. Farmer. She was a faithful member until her death.

She was known by everybody as "Aunt Martha". She was a noble character, and to know her was to love her. She greeted everybody with a smile, was always kind and patient. Despite the fact that upon her brow there rested the snows of 71 winters, she was active and fairly strong up until a few months prior to her demise, and little did we think that so soon she'd lay aside the armor of life. Truly, "in the midst of life we are in death." She was sick only three weeks.

She was laid to rest in New Providence cemetery Dec. 20. Funeral services were conducted by Elder Mitchell.

She leaves five sisters, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives to mourn her death.

Weep no more, dear relatives and friends. "Aunt Martha" is not dead but sleeping. She has fallen asleep in Jesus, and in the morning when all the saints shall be gathered home we will see her again. She is waiting just across the River and is beckoning us to follow the way Christ teaches in His word.

One day not far in the future we all must tread the same path she has gone, and may we be ready to enter into that home of peace, joy and happiness, and be with the Father and all the holy angels.

One Who Loved Her.

STRAIGHT SALARY: $35.00 per week and expenses. Man or woman with rig to introduce POULTRY MIXTURE, Eureka Mfg. Co., East St. Louis, Ill.

In accordance with the current agitation in favor of Stock-raising, Mr. J. D. Smith, one of the proprietors of Smith Brothers store in West Elba, phoned The Clipper last week that a brood sow of his had taken the idea seriously and was now the mother of fourteen pigs, the second time, by the way, that this sow had farrowed a litter of that number.

PLEASEING YOU IS OUR GREATEST PLEASURE

The greatest satisfaction in serving as Elba's most popular food station is the pleasure we get in age by keeping up with the latest in food styles, all-pleasing you. We strive hard to merit your patronage demanding quality from the manufacturer, and then marking our merchandise in plain figures at low prices. To this is added,
